

International Fellowship Of Chaplains

| | | | |
|---|--------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| Job Title: | Corps Commander | Department/Group: | Corps Operations |
| Location: | United States | Travel Required?: | Travel Not Required |
| Reports To: | Regional Commander | Supervises: | Assistant Corps Commander |
| Collaborates With: | Corps Command Staff, Chaplains | | |
| Applications Accepted by: | | | |
| EMAIL: Brian.Guinther@ifoc.org Subject Line: Corps Commander | | | |
| Job Description | | | |
| ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES The Corps Commander is the ranking Chaplain in a Corps. They are responsible for applying the IFOC vision to the local community in a manner that allows the Corps to serve. They are the principle director for a functional DBA business unit. They support the members of the Corps by interacting with community officials in the support of their assigned chaplains and their desired field of chaplaincy. A successful Corps Commander is a servant leader who serves both their chaplains and the community where the corps is located. Corps Commanders lead their Corps of chaplains: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct monthly meetings with their corps members. • Interact with community leaders in their locations to promote chaplaincy and help create areas to serve in. • Report to the Regional Commander in charge of their area on a monthly basis, relevant activities and happenings (areas serving in) with the chaplains in your corps. • To keep abreast of the happenings of the IFOC Chaplains in your corps. • Provide advice on an annual basis to the Membership Director on renewal decisions when chaplains under their guidance renew with the IFOC. • Lead the local board of directors and ensure responsible financial activities and financial reporting is done timely. Promote IFOC to assigned Chaplains by building relationships. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Commander’s primary job is to develop relationships with the chaplains under their authority. 2. Commanders should build relationships by supporting assigned staff, helping resolve problems as possible, and getting to know assigned command staff under their authority. 3. Commanders should be aware of where the chaplains assigned to them are serving. 4. Create a family atmosphere and relationship among the Corps Chaplains. Corps Commanders are generally responsible for all IFOC activities within their communities. Corps Commanders report to Regional Commanders (if applicable for your region) and then to the Executive Director of Corps Operations & the IFOC Executive Director of Corps. | | | |
| Qualifications and Education Requirements | | | |

Must be an Ordained Chaplain with the IFOC

Must have their pastor / spiritual overseer's recommendation for Christian Leadership

PREFERRED SKILLS

Must be able to practice servant leadership.

Must have good organizational skills and follow through.